FOREWORD

In offering this, the 1947 BULL, to the students, faculty, alumni and friends of Johnson C. Smith University, we, the members of the staff, have sincerely tried to maintain the high standards of the BULLS of previous years and definitely hope that it will warrant the approbation of its readers.

This year's BULL is a project of the combined efforts of the Junior and Senior classes, whose utmost goal was to materialize some of the outstanding phases and memories of school life here at Smith.

We have worked persistently, tenaciously and diligently in an effort to truly depict the 1947 Smith. How well we have succeeded is for you, the reader, to judge.

DEDICATION

To our men who stormed ashore to face enemy gunfire and conquer a thousand islands in the South Pacific . . .

To our men who landed in Africa to battle not only a formidable foe, but a terrain that was as cruel as the enemy . . .

To our men who climbed the rugged peaks of Sicily and Italy . . .

To our men who bravely defied the mines, torpedoes, and divebombers to keep the sea lanes free . . .

To our men who manned the trucks and jeeps, tanks, guns and planes to establish the Normandy beachhead . . .

To our men who rose to defend . . .

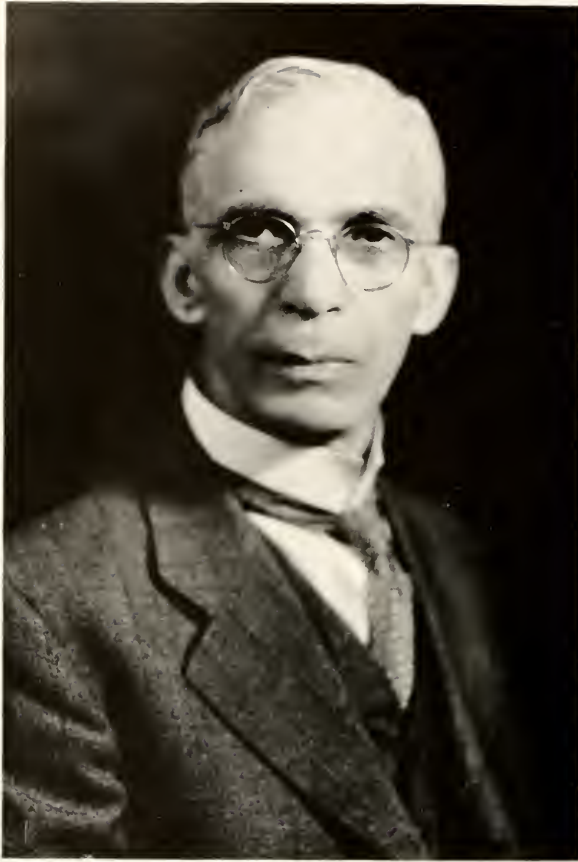

To our men who suffered innumerable deprivations and hardships . . .

To our men who shed blood, sweat and tears for freedom . . .

To our men who came to college after they had forced a vicious enemy to submit to unconditional surrender . . .

TO OUR VETERANS
WE GRATEFULLY DEDICATE THE 1947 BULL

TRIBUTE

to our President,
DR. H. L. MCCROREY,

whose untiring, incessant, masterly efforts have contributed immeasurably to the advancement of our beloved
ALMA MATER.

CLASS HISTORY

It was the year nineteen hundred and forty-three when another band of excited young adventurers, eager to delve into the mysteries of a new land—college, landed on the shores of Johnson C. Smith University. Knowledge was their goal, but they knew that in traveling along Her rocky road, they would discover many other treasures along the way; among them, new friends, new ideas and maturity. Some of these young adventurers, however, had to tarry and wrestle with that culture—WAR. With fear in their hearts, those who remained behind, wished these new warriors a victorious fight and a safe return.

In moments of reverie, the Class of '47 will remember such things as: Gibson's "Casey at the Bat"; "Big Dog" Ragin's rise to fame in football and basketball; Thomas Byer's tennis; freshman scholarship awards to Winona E. Lee and Dorothy L. Mitchell; the first Junior Senior Prom in the history of Johnson C. Smith University; our class leaders: Jasper Powell, Clarence Wade, Frank Baker and Raymond Washington; Frank Baker's "You'll Never Know"; "The Strike"; and above all those who served as guides to the ultimate goal.

We will also remember those returning warriors of previous classes who joined our ranks and who have become an indispensable part of the Class of '47.

And now we have reached the end of our journey—the last mile. Those who have survived realize that they have really just begun, that these four years have only been an introduction to Life, a mere period of preparation for future achievement.

WILL AND TESTAMENT OF THE SENIOR CLASS OF 1947

State of North Carolina
County of Mecklenburg
City of Charlotte

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1947, being cognizant of the fact that an end must soon come to our blissful and tearful days spent at our dear institution and that, ere night falls, we leave our footsteps on these sands of time, and in order to prevent any legal controversies, after our decease, over our enormous accumulations, do seize this moment to make our final testament.

The Class of 1947 of Johnson C. Smith University, claiming full health of body and mind and believing ourselves fully capable of disposing of all our worldly belongings, do declare this our last Will and Testament and render null and void any wills previously made by us. Such accumulations and estate as it has pleased kind Fate to bestow upon us we dispose of as follows:

It is our desire that all expenses incurred through our burial services be met by those thousands of dollars that were supposed to have reached us from home but never did.

To our dear Alma Mater, that has so effectively served humanity through the years, we pledge our unwavering loyalty and support as long as there is a Johnson C. Smith. We leave with this promise.

To Dr. McCrorey, the Administration and Faculty, we do will and bequeath our sincere thanks and appreciation for their untiring efforts and useful service to the University and especially that part of which we ourselves have fortunately partaken.

To our beloved parents who have spent the best years of their lives struggling and sacrificing that we might continue our education, we express our indebtedness and do hereby declare to shape our hereafter that it will bring them only joy and contentment in their old age.

To all our fellow schoolmates whom we leave behind, we will and bequeath all the solutions to the problems that are sure to come in your Senior year, and our abilities, good sense and patience, that it took to solve them.

To all who may come after us we offer congratulations for choosing this our Alma Mater and may they enjoy some of the luxuries that were denied us during our sojourn.

We do hereby appoint and constitute the President of the First National Bank of Charlotte and the County Judge to execute this our last Will and Testament.

In testimony whereof we, the Class of 1947, have to this our last Will and Testament set our hands and seal, this the thirtieth day of May Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven.

THE COLLEGIATE VETERANS' CLUB

Above may be seen the majority of the approximately 320 veterans on the campus. Here may be seen the faces of new students and also of former students, whose periods of military service served only as a constant reminder that the completion of their college education was the most important factor to be considered.

The projects and programs of the Veterans' Club have been many (e. g., Armistice Day celebration, dedication ceremonies, several chapel programs, dances, socials, etc.). The efficiency of the organization has been demonstrated repeatedly in its help to the returning veterans.

The Officers (Executive Group) of the Veterans' Club are as follows:

RAYMOND W. WASHINGTON Commander
 I. GRANTHAM SIMPSON Public Relations Officer
 JOHN L. HOLTON Adjutant
 RICHARD ERWIN Finance Officer
 SANDY J. MCINTYRE, II Judge Advocate

ALEXANDER C. BETHEA, JR. Provost Marshal
 JOHN POTTS Advertising Manager
 GEORGE BROOKS Chairman of Social Committee
 JAMES FEEMSTER Chairman of Program Committee
 JAMES O. STATEN Project Chairman

IRA ALDRIDGE DRAMATIC GUILD

The year 1946-47 may well go down in the annals of the Dramatic Guild, for this school year marks the first time all dramatic functions were under the direction of student supervision. Except for occasional advice received from experienced faculty personnel, the Guild, under the direction of Winona Lee, ran its course only through student management.

The major dramatic presentation of the year, "Night Must Fall," by Emlyn Williams, a three-act melodrama, was considered an outstanding triumph for the Guild. Members of the cast were Sandy McIntyre as "Dan," Ruth Houston as "Mrs. Bramson," Dorothy Mitchell as "Olivia," Maben Dixon as "Dora," Henrietta Bynum as "Mrs. Terrence," John Twitty as "Inspector Belsize," James Staten as "Hubert," Mary Williams as "Nurse Libby" and Jerry Flack as "The Lord Chief Justice."

The Guild has also sponsored series of one-act plays, weekly broadcasts over Station WSOC, etc. The ending of the school year was climaxed with a gala picnic.

RADIO GUILD

This year the Radio Guild, under the student direction of Edgar Ward, has had a full and energetic year. Every Thursday at 5:45 over Station WSOC the familiar strains of "We Are All Americans . . ." and the words "This is ONE TENTH OF A NATION coming to you . . ." are tuned in by the constituents of Smith and also the citizens of Charlotte and surrounding towns. Once a month over Station WAYS another program is enjoyed by the same persons. Members of the Guild are: Edgar Ward, Student Director; Winona Lee, Robert Richardson, Mary Williams, Marion Tillman and Sandy McIntyre, Student Director before entering the service.

INTERCOLLEGIATE COUNCIL

The Interracial Intercollegiate Council for the Charlotte area was organized by an interested group of faculty and students of Davidson College and Johnson C. Smith University in October of 1946.

The purpose of the council is to promote better interracial relations and feelings of good will. Regular meetings are held on the two college campuses, at which time current problems are discussed and probable solutions are brought forth.

Smith members of the Council are: James Green, Jesse Stepp, Geraldine Gordon, Mildred Hester, Henry L. Grant, Sandy J. McIntyre, II, Marjorie Hymes, Joseph Gaston, Winona Lee, Frances Reeves, LeVonne Steele.

Faculty Advisers: Dr. A. O. Steele, Rev. Moses Belton, and Miss Mable Parker.

ALPHA PHI OMEGA

NATIONAL SERVICE FRATERNITY

The true measure of a successful Alpha Phi Omega Chapter is the service rendered to its campus and community. Alpha Phi Omega is purely a service fraternity and in this sense is unique among campus organizations. This organization has a definite program for activities in which the chapters direct their energies and talents for the benefits of their fellowmen. The chapter on this campus is the first to be established in any Negro college or university.

BOARD OF STRATEGY

COACHING STAFF

DEDICATION

The Varsity "S" Club of Johnson C. Smith University dedicates the Sport Section of this year's BULL to the late "Sugar" Dowling, who was killed in action while serving his country. Captain Dowling attended Smith in 1940-41. A member of the Varsity "S" Club, he was an excellent boxer and an exceptionally fine football player—to us who knew him, he was the pride of our hearts.

Wherever you are, we know you are displaying the qualities of good sportsmanship for which you were known. So here's to you, "Sugar" Dowling—you were a great guy!

FOOTBALL SQUAD

Individual Scorers for the season were: Raymond Washington with 158 points and an average of 10.5, followed by James F. Ragin with 149 points and an average of 9.9.

Not seen on picture: Ollie "Hus" Cox, Publicity Agent.

This year marks the return to the squared circle of the Golden Bulls who have been absent from CIAA competition since 1941. The Bulls boxing squad ruled the CIAA circle for the years of 1938-39-40. So here's to the return of the champs.

TENNIS 1947

Piloted by our aggressive tennis coach, Prof. W. R. Coleman, the 1947 Tennis Team prepares itself for the CIAA Tennis Tournament to be held at Howard University, May 2-3. Recently at a Triangle Meet between Smith, St. Augustine and Shaw, Smith won the meet with a score of five points; Shaw was next with four; St. Augustine, one. In a dual match between Smith and A & T, Smith netted four points and A & T two. So here's to victory for the Golden Bulls at Howard.

Members of the team are: Thomas Byers (CIAA Singles Champ 1944), John "Red" Adams, Charles "Spider" Webb, "Blind Man" Pearson and Forest Willis.

This year as in the past, the Wrestling Squad, under the direction of Coach Bailey, is out to get its share of honors. Their only engagement so far this season was at the Triangular Meet held at A & T in April between Smith, A & T and Virginia State. Smith beat Virginia State to win the meet. Here's wishing you many more victories!
